MESSAGE FROM OUR CHAIR

Do you remember the day you graduated from Georgia State University? If your graduation was anything like the last ever graduation GSU just performed in the Georgia Dome on December 14, 2016, you likely were overwhelmed with pride, excitement, and most of all, a genuine sense of accomplishment. The cannon boomed. The bag pipes echoed. The confetti fell from the rafters. As the ceremony concluded and I exited off the stage at graduation with the rest of the platform party, I had the opportunity to walk by the smiling faces of our most recent graduates, our newest alumni. Their parents in the crowd were wiping their tears of joy. I had chills as I left the field and entered into the tunnels of the Ga Dome. That’s what it is all about – the smiles, the tears, the comradery, the togetherness, the collective accomplishments, the end of one fantastic journey only to begin the next one. It reminded me, once again, there has never been a greater time than right now to be a member of the GSU alumni community. We have so much to be proud of at GSU.

With the addition of Perimeter College, GSU is now the largest school in the University System of Georgia. Our Alumni Association is successfully riding the GSU momentum and the intended outcome has been greater alumni engagement in 2016.

- 7% increase in event attendance
- 10% increase in scholarship dollars raised
- 13% increase in Student Alumni Association memberships
- 44% increase in participation of GSU Cares annual day of service
- 113% increase in student programming fundraising
- Addition of the Hospitality Alumni Network
- Addition of Deloitte and CDC corporate groups

Your time at Georgia State may only be a few short years but your time as alumni is a lifetime. I am proud to chair the alumni association, and I would encourage to you let us know what we can do to help you get involved. Come back and visit our campuses, meet with our students, attend an alumni association event, and most of all, cultivate this unbelievable network you have available to you.

Go Panthers!
